vyking Launches long-awaited Sports Prediction Feature for Euro24

June 5, 2024

vyking, a battle-tested aggregator and leading provider of iGaming platform technology, is excited to announce the release of its latest feature, the Tip Game, just in time for Euro24. This new offering is set to boost player engagement and amplify operator success throughout the highly anticipated football tournament.

This tip game by vyking empowers operators to create customized contests, allowing players to predict match outcomes and compete for substantial rewards. This engaging feature not only enhances the excitement of Euro24 but also provides operators with a powerful tool to attract and retain players.

"We are thrilled to introduce our sports prediction feature for Euro24," says Christian Eichinger, COO at vyking. "Our aim is to deliver features that not only entertain players but also drive significant value for our partners. With this tip game, operators can elevate their customers' tournament experience and boost their competitive edge."

Key highlights of the Sports Prediction Feature include:

- Customizable Contests: Operators can tailor contests to their specific needs, ensuring a unique and engaging experience for their players.
- Enhanced Player Engagement: By offering thrilling prediction opportunities, players are more likely to stay engaged and excited throughout Euro24.
- Boosted Operator Success: With increased player participation, operators can expect improved retention rates and customer loyalty.
- Join vyking in elevating the Euro24 experience. For more information about the Sports Prediction Feature and how it can enhance your operations, contact Christian Eichinger.
